PROFILE

My name is Kacper Sapis. I am a young creative person who builds my experience by running my own business and I received training many courses to improve my personal development. I am not afraid of what is new and I am happy to take up new challenges. I treat each day as an opportunity to broaden my competences and horizons.

I am interested in innovative solutions, automation of processes taking place in the company, data analysis and modern forms of business.

WORK EXPERIENCE
